

Parent-Teacher Conferences

PARENT TEACHER CONFERENCES WILL BE HELD THURSDAY, OCTOBER 19TH FROM 10AM-6:30PM

RAVEN REVIEW

VOLUME 1, ISSUE 8

Principal's Corner

Parent Teacher Conferences will be held on Thursday, October 19th from 10:00am – 6:30pm. This is a new format this year, so I would like to use this week's newsletter to explain the change.

In previous years, we have scheduled K-5 conferences for one date in October and two dates for preschool. In the last two years, we've seen a 20% influx in student enrollment. This forced us to open three conference dates for preschool, two for our larger classes, and one for everyone else. After reviewing our options, I decided to make a change in our format.

I've previously worked in a school district that uses this format and after polling administrators, teachers, and parents, the feedback was genuinely positive. We will now be able cease any confusion of dates, allow for more flexible time intervals, and provide teachers with time to prepare lessons for the upcoming quarter.

Our educational philosophy at St. Joseph has always been to "assist parents in their primary duty in educating their children". Parent Teacher Conferences are the living example of that philosophy. This may seem menial in the grand scheme of things, but your partnership with our teachers is paramount to the success and gains we will see in the classroom! I challenge our parents to achieve higher than a 90% attendance rate this year!
