FROM FATHER BARNHILL

Monday, June 17 was a transition date as I became pastor of the parishes of Wymore, Odell and Barneston as well as St Joseph, Beatrice parish. The Month of June duties were mainly administrative. The Wymore cemetery had wind damage which required an insurance claim. The Wymore church organ required repair after a possible power surge from a storm. The church exterior air conditioner units needed repair. A sealcoat was put on the church parking lot as well as the cemetery access roads. Cemetery and church mowing Wymore/Odell/Barneston will continue as in recent years past.

The Wymore rectory is without a resident. Housekeeping, building maintenance, and parish office matters were June tasks involving the rectory. The parish trustees of Wymore/Odell/Barneston have been helpful in the care of the above tasks. I will continue to consult the lay trustees on parish matters. Sara Stedman of Beatrice is now the bookkeeper for Wymore/Odell/Barneston/Beatrice. Father Birkel (Fairbury) completed his duties overseeing the finances during the past year.

Wednesday July 17, will be the ceremony of installation of a new pastor. This event will occur in conjunction with the Totus Tuus Summer CCD Program being held in Beatrice. All parishes are invited to the 6:00p.m. Potluck meal in the St Joseph Parish Hall, Beatrice. The Totus Tuus team members will be present and all youth are especially invited. After the potluck meal, the informal pastor installation ceremony will occur. Wymore/Odell/Barneston parish members are especially welcome to attend the Wednesday, July 17, 6:-00pm potluck and ceremony.
