Celebrating Advent?

If you haven't started yet I have a couple of suggestions/traditions you may want to consider. They can really help get you and your family in the mood for a wonderful Advent/Christmas season.

- Acts of Kindness and Joy – Local charities need help with Angel Trees, food and toy collections or you may choose to visit those who might be alone during the season. One way to get everyone involved at home is through the Cross Catholic Box of Joy.
- The simple act of Caroling for your neighbors and friends one evening can lift both your spirits and those who get to enjoy your surprise.
- Prepare the Manger – One lovely tradition, shared by a teacher from the past, is to prepare the manger during Advent. Each evening, parents and kids place a straw or cut up piece of yellow or gold construction paper into the manger for each secret act of kindness done during the day – a simple offering to Jesus to prepare our hearts by preparing the manger.

Peace,
Mr. Burki
