FROM SUMMER SEMINARIAN: Hello, St. Joseph's Beatrice! My name is Loudon Redinger and I am a Theology 2 Seminarian studying for the Lincoln Diocese at St. Charles Borromeo Seminary in Philadelphia. I am the oldest of nine! I have two brothers and six sisters. Growing up my family and I moved around Nebraska and Kansas. I graduated from Shelton High School in Shelton, NE back in 2014. After High School, I attended St. Gregory the Great Seminary in Seward for four years. My family lives in Hastings and attends St. Michael's Parish. Due to the COVID-19 pandemic I arrived home on St. Patrick's Day and lived at my home parish of St. Michael's where I was able to finish my classes on Zoom. I do have a family connection to Beatrice through Jim Morehead who is my cousin. During this past school year, I was involved in high school ministry and teaching at Bishop Shanahan High School just outside of Philadelphia. A number of factors inspired my priestly calling. My family have been supportive since day one and have always encouraged a calling to the priesthood. The late Father Paul York and his witness of service left a life-changing impact while my family and I were members of Sacred Heart in Crete. He helped me to attend World Youth Day 2011, which took place in Madrid, Spain. I was also heavily involved in Leadership Camp at Camp Kateri Tekawitha near McCool Junction for almost every summer since fifth grade. I am excited and looking forward to getting to know all of you more this summer! God bless.
